

Note: The first two volumes of the Yearbook were published on paper medium by University of Latvia Press. We are currently working on the digitalisation of their content. Please see ORDERING INFORMATION to obtain a paperback exemplar.

THE BALTIC INTERNATIONAL YEARBOOK OF COGNITION, LOGIC AND COMMUNICATION. VOL. 2.

Preface

Jurgis Šķilters

(University of Latvia, Riga, Latvia)

Fiorenza Toccafondi

(University of Parma, Italy)

OSWALD KÜLPE: INSPIRATION, INSTIGATION AND IMPACT

Oswald Külpe and the Würzburg School: Context, Practice, Reception

Mitchell G. Ash

(University of Vienna, Austria)

Oswald Külpe and the Würzburg School from the Perspective of Modern Systems Theory

Jürgen Kriz

(University of Osnabrück, Germany)

Der junge Martin Heidegger liest Oswald Külpe: Realitätsproblem zwischen Ontologie und Erkenntnistheorie

Raivis Bičevskis

(University of Latvia, Riga, Latvia)

THEORY: QUALITATIVE SCIENCE AND COMPLEX COGNITION

Introduction to Ukichiro Nakaya: Methods of Science: Chapter Themes

Keiji Higuchi

(Nagoya University, Japan)

Methods of Science: Chapter Themes

Ukichiro Nakaya

Resonanz: Zur strukturellen Kopplung harmonischer Selbst-Erkenntnis

Arndt Kümpel

(Berlin, Germany)

The Role of Mental Representations in a Theory of Meaning: Aristotle versus Objectivism

Līva Muižniece

(University of Latvia, Riga, Latvia)

Mathematics and Cognition: Some Objections to a Cognitive Foundation for Mathematics

Francesca Boccuni

(University of Eastern Piedmont, Italy)

Complex Thinking: the Emergence of Everything?

Alan Baker

(Swarthmore College, PA, USA)

APPLICATION: LANGUAGE, MEANING, AND MAPPING

Representation of Concepts as Frames

Wiebke Petersen

(University of Düsseldorf, Germany)

Structuring Metaphors with Basic-Level Concepts for Word Sense Disambiguation

Steve Legrand

(University of Jyväskylä, Finland)

Conceptual Mappings and 'Smuggling' Information in Witness Testimonies

June Luchjenbroers

(University of Bangor, UK)

Michelle Aldridge

(Cardiff University, UK)

Specific Features of Polysemous Phenomena in Literary Communication

Signe Valtiņa

(University of Latvia, Riga, Latvia)