Not Just a Year of Social Justice Education

Keeping true to its heritage of diversity and inclusion, the College of Education and the Midwest Equity Assistance Center has launched an initiative to bring light to many of the defining social issues of our time.

“Not Just a Year of Social Justice Education” is a yearlong program bringing together researchers, subject matter experts, clergy, authors, community members and student organizations to weigh in on some of this generation’s most pressing social issues. The activities supplement the college’s new Social Justice Education graduate certificate program.
