

NOTES IN BRIEF

ANNA SEGHERS' 80th BIRTHDAY

On the occasion of Anna Seghers' 80th birthday (Nov. 10, 1980), Aufbau-Verlag is publishing the final two volumes of her Gesammelten Werke in Einzelbänden. The two volumes, Aufsätze -- Ansprachen -- Essays, provide a selection of non-fiction writing from 1927 to 1979, while the first twelve volumes were devoted to the novels and short stories.

Three new stories will be published in a separate collectors' edition with the title Drei Frauen aus Haiti, illustrated by Günther Lück. New editions of Die Toten bleiben jung and Das Vertrauen have also been recently published.

CONWAY, N.H., SYMPOSIA

From June 13-20, 1980, the World Fellowship Center near Conway, N.H., was the setting of the Sixth International Symposium on the German Democratic Republic. Thirty-one papers and presentations were offered in two workshops and eight seminars, including topics such as Contemporary GDR Music, Current Social and Economic Themes, GDR Reception of Foreign Literature, Literary Satire and Caricature, Church and Religion in the GDR, Mass-Media in the GDR, and a number of literary topics. The broad spectrum of interests included reflects the growing catholicity of the Symposium since its first purely literary focus in 1973.

The Symposium has also become increasingly international. Among the participants this year were several from Canada, the Federal Republic of Germany, and the GDR. These first GDR guests included Reinhard Isensee, who studied and taught at Colby College in 1979-80, and Roswitha Trexler and Fritz Hennenberg, who were just ending a musical engagement in the U.S. Their program of avant-garde music and songs by Brecht, Weill, and Dessau was a special feature of the 1980 Symposium.

A major development of the Symposium was this year's decision to publish the proceedings. It is anticipated that a volume containing most of the 1980 papers will be published during the 1980-81 academic year. The GDR Bulletin will be informed of the details as soon as they are available.
