

What's Coming?

Before we get to what's coming, we feel a word is in order about this issue. Even before we got the last (Spring) issue in the mail to you, we had copy of more articles than we had expected for the current quarterly. And by the time we returned from the annual meeting at Logan, Utah, we had more. So, we didn't try to work any of the conference presentations into this issue. In fact, we left copy for most of this one at the print shop before we headed west. That way we can keep closer to schedule than we might otherwise.

Now, we think maybe for the fall issue we'll concentrate on selections from the annual meeting program. Unfortunately we don't have enough materials to turn out a "proceedings" kind of book. But, we think we can give you a good many of the highlights of the goings on. So be looking.

Also, we have a real "cutie" from Tom McCormick, up in Vermont. We rather think you'll get a charge from his Random Answers Without Questions about The Incongruity Factor.
