

Your support isn't just a contribution. It's a force for change.

Every donation, big or small, fuels the momentum of our progress.
Did you know K-State Libraries offers a variety of giving opportunities, so you can direct your dollars to the programs that best align with your interests?

YOU CAN...

Give the Libraries the flexibility to use your donation as needed.

Friends of the Library Fund (C76705)

Library Dean's Excellence Fund (C76700)

Support research and student learning through acquisitions or the development of free, open or alternative textbooks and digital resources.

Library Acquisition Endowment (C76690)

Open/Alternative Textbook Initiative (C33931)

Strengthen efforts to preserve and make available university archives and special collections.

Dr. Richard L. D. and Marjorie J. Morse Special Collections Endowment (C80106)

Ensure students have access to the latest technologies to prepare them for their future careers.

Sunderland Innovation Lab (C38555)

Support the Friends of the Libraries' goal to replace the windows in Historic Farrell Library. (See pages 10-11.)

Hale Library Historical Windows Fund (C26928)

Make a donation today at lib.k-state.edu/about/support-the-libraries or use the QR code provided.

Learn more about these opportunities or create your own by contacting Evan Jones, senior director of development at the KSU Foundation, at 785-775-2078 or evanj@ksufoundation.org.